Many people, one school. Proud of who we are.

5th February 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

The first week back after half term will be 'Reading Week' at King George V. We will be spending this week raising the profile of reading for pleasure, doing lots of activities based on books and promoting the enjoyment of reading to all of the children.

There will be a used book sale after school on Monday 26th, Tuesday 27th and Wednesday 28th February from 3.15pm until 3.30pm in the hall, this will run alongside the usual 'new book' sale.

We will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 1st March and would like the children (and staff) to come dressed up as their favourite book character. There will be prizes given in each class for the most creative costume.
Following the success of last year's film night we would like to do this again on World Book Day. You and your child are invited back to school at 5.30pm until 7.00pm for a bedtime story telling session. The session will take place in the hall where the children will listen to an extract from a book and then watch the film version of that story. We would like the children to come in their pyjamas and please feel free to bring pillows and blankets too! Please note, we cannot allow children to come back to school unsupervised.

On Friday 2nd March all parents are invited to school to read with their children in class, from 8.55am until 9.30am. We hope you will be able join us as this is something we would like to consider doing regularly.

As well as the above there will be many activities and competitions taking place in school throughout the week. If you would like to help in anyway or have further ideas please see me Miss Mee by Monday 12th February.

Yours Sincerely

Miss S. Penny
